

Says Old-Line Japs Accept Democracy

PREMIER YOSHIDA

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's food crisis has ended temporarily, but growing unemployment presents a major threat to social peace at the outset of the second year of the occupation, Premier Shigeru Yoshida said today.

He remarked during an interview that older Japanese Conservatives—including himself—now find it "easier" to accept democracy. Its merit, he said, was demonstrated during the past year.

"Thanks to the United States, our food problem has been solved, at least temporarily," the Premier said.

Deadlocked Still In Steel Strike

OTTAWA (CP)—The government and union representatives appeared deadlocked today in their efforts to settle the 54-day steel strike.

Pat Conroy, secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Congress of Labor, met Labor Minister Mitchell at a 45-minute conference this morning, but at the end of the meeting he said he was unable to report any progress. Changes in the position of the government and the United Steel Workers of America (C.I.O.) were "infinitesimal," he said. A further conference between Mr. Conroy, with officials of the steel union and Mr. Mitchell was scheduled for late this afternoon.

U.S. Urges United States Of Germany

Most Of Big 4 Favor Delaying U.N. Assembly

PARIS (AP)—French informants said the Foreign Ministers' Council meeting today held open a final decision on a Russian proposal to postpone the United Nations' General Assembly meeting to Nov. 11. The decision was deferred until U.S. State Secretary Byrnes returns to Paris.

Previously an American who attended only the first part of the meeting had reported that the Foreign Ministers had decided to recommend a postponement of the U.N. session scheduled for Sept. 23 in New York. The council had not then taken up the second part of the Soviet proposal to transfer the meeting to Paris or Geneva, the U.S. informant said.

French sources said the Russian proposal to postpone the meeting until Nov. 11 was supported by France and China, and the British Foreign Secretary Bevin also agreed to delay the U.N. meeting, but only on several conditions.

According to French informants, James C. Dunn, who deputized for Secretary Byrnes, recognized the validity of Russia's argument for a postponement, but said he was not empowered to make the final decision for the United States.

The council then tentatively scheduled another meeting for Sunday. Byrnes is expected back from Germany by that time.

Non-Strikers See Minister Of Labor

HAMILTON (CP)—An eight-man delegation of men who are working inside the strike-bound Steel Company of Canada plant here returned from Ottawa today after meeting with Labor Minister Mitchell. James Donaldson, spokesman for the delegation, said the Labor Minister was non-committal.

"While the Labor Minister was non-committal," Mr. Donaldson said, "we felt we had made a definite impression."

British To Pray For Harvest

LONDON (CP)—Sunday will be a national day of prayer for fine weather to save British harvests.

The Archbishop of York, Most Rev. Cyril Garbett, at the request of the National Farmers' Union, has appealed to all churches to include special prayers in their Sunday services.

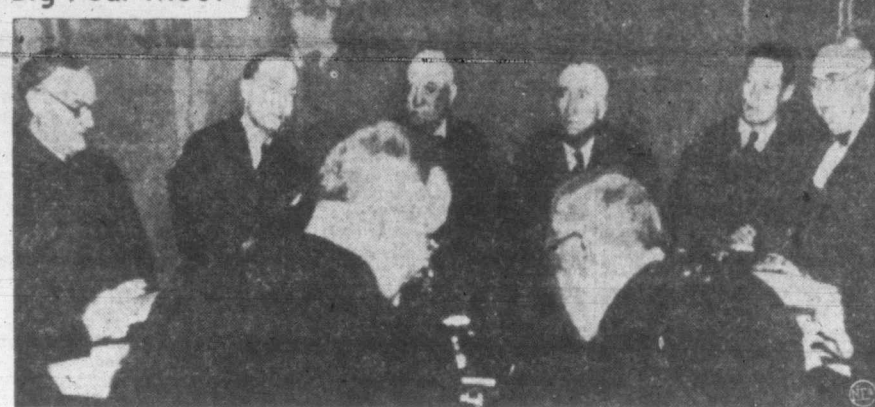

"The position is very grave," a union official said. "Scores of thousands of acres of wheat, barley, oats and rye have been flattened."

Days of sun and drying winds will be necessary before farmers can even begin harvesting. In Gloucestershire, 50 per cent of crops have been ruined beyond redemption.

Pinero is first native to become Governor of Puerto Rico.

Big Four Meet

The Foreign Ministers of the Big 4 are shown as they met at the French Foreign Ministry in Paris. In the foreground, Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov (left) and Andrei Y. Vyshinsky put their heads together. At far side of table, facing camera, are (left to right) British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin; unidentified man; U.S. Senator Tom Connally; U.S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes; Charles Bohlen, assistant to Byrnes, and U.S. Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg. It was hoped their exchange of views would speed up the proceedings of the Peace Conference, but as yet no great change has been observed.

Britain To Withdraw From Big 4 Pact On Venezia If Trieste Not Kept Open

PARIS (AP)—Great Britain warned the peace conference today that she would withdraw from the Big Four agreement on division of Venezia Giulia if Trieste is not given a genuine "international" status as a free territory.

Charging that Yugoslavia is claiming "a very special position" in the administration of the disputed Adriatic port, British delegate Hector McNeill said Britain would "reconsider the whole agreement" if Trieste's independence is impaired.

France, too, lined up with Britain in opposing Yugoslav claims to domination of Trieste, though in less unequivocal language.

Maurice Couve de Murville, the French delegate, said his government would "insist on a free territory as the core of the whole situation."

2,534 Ships Idle In U.S. Ports As Seamen's Strike Takes Effect

NEW YORK (AP)—A paralyzing maritime strike spread through United States coastal ports today, immobilizing 2,534 ships on three coasts, union officials claimed.

Spokesmen for the striking Seafarers' International Union (A.F.L.) and the Sailors' Union of the Pacific in New York said 534 ships were tied up in the port of New York, 350 in other Atlantic coast ports, 450 in Gulf ports and 1,200 in West Coast ports.

The figures were announced soon after seamen had flung picket lines along the New York shore front—lines which other A.F.L. and rival C.I.O. unions have pledged to respect.

A possibility of an international tie-up was hinted in a bulletin issued from strike headquarters in New York. It said "expressions of support" had been received from "all over the world," including British, Danish, Swedish, Norse and Greek seamen.

Assurance that longshoremen would respect the picket lines of the S.I.U. and its companion striking union, the Sailors' Union of the Pacific, quickly came from Joseph P. Ryan, president of the International Longshoremen's Association (A.F.L.).

Beginning their fight to break a Wage Stabilization Board ruling limiting their wage increases of $22.50 to $27.50 monthly to the $17.50 raise won last June by the rival National Maritime Union (C.I.O.), pickets formed at New York piers shortly after 7 a.m. E.D.T.

The Maritime Commission appealed to participants in the strike to keep refrigerating machinery aboard ships in operation "to prevent spoilage of thousands of tons of perishable food."

Nearly 400,000 workers, including dock employees, tugboat operators and C.I.O. seamen, said they would honor picket lines.

This was the first notice that any of the four-power Foreign Ministers Council might not stand by their accords hammered out in 11 months of negotiations.

Foreign Minister Molotov of Russia has insisted again and again throughout the five-week peace conference that the four powers resist unanimously any attempt to change agreed sections of the treaty drafts, and the council reaffirmed this solidarity again last week. Only Thursday the Soviet deputy, Andrei Vishinsky, supported the Trieste Agreement although he said it was a "minimum" of justice for Yugoslavia.

"If some countries are thinking in terms of barbed wire frontiers which can be moved by force to their advantage, it will be a failure," Mr. McNeill said.

Turning to Mr. Vishinsky's

statement Thursday that the Big Four agreement on Venezia Giulia contained a "minimum of justice," Mr. McNeill declared Britain had "never any doubt about the imperfections" of the so-called French Line chosen for the Yugoslav-Italian frontier.

He said Mr. Vishinsky's statement was "lacking in international spirit" and added that "we just can't shut the door on Italy or any other nation of the world."

Mr. Molotov was sitting at the conference table for the first time since his return Thursday from Moscow, as Mr. McNeill spoke up sharply against "building walls around countries."

"Neither the Soviet Union, Great Britain nor any other nation can shut itself off from the world," Mr. McNeill said. "We must have an international spirit to achieve peace."

To Seek Amnesty For Jailed Veteran In Edmonton

EDMONTON (CP)—Canadian Legion officials here said today they will seek federal reconsideration of the case of an Edmonton soldier who served overseas for more than four years and who recently was sentenced to a year's imprisonment by an M.D. 15 court martial for returning to Canada without authority.

The soldier, a married man with two children who enlisted here in 1940, served in France with an anti-aircraft battery.

Legion officials said they would probably ask Dominion military authorities for a pardon and honorable discharge for the soldier in view of the general amnesty extended deservants and draft dodgers.

Mr. MacKinnon said it was impossible to give a "snap decision" to the farmers' demands. Some of the representations deserved thorough investigation and would be sympathetically dealt with.

He emphasized, "We are not slamming the door in their faces," but no more definite assurance could be given that the government was willing to meet the farmers' demands until the matter had been thoroughly discussed by the cabinet, particularly by Mr. Gardiner and Mr. Ilsley.

Dispatches from Alberta today said 20,000 Alberta farmers had their pickets organized to try and block grain, dairy products and livestock from reaching the market after midnight tonight.

Occupation Army Stays; Byrnes Rejects Claims Of France To Rhineland

Minister Denies Supporting Probe Of Farm Prices

OTTAWA (CP)—Trade Minister MacKinnon denied today an Edmonton report that he had given his personal support to the establishment of a Royal Commission to investigate basic farm costs of operation in relation to prices of needed farm commodities.

Mr. MacKinnon said there was "no mention" of a Royal Commission during his discussions here Thursday with representatives of the Alberta Farmers' Union and the Saskatchewan section of the United Farmers of Canada.

He was commenting on an Edmonton dispatch which said his reported support for such a commission had stirred hope for a last-minute postponement of the threatened delivery strike by 20,000 members of the union scheduled to start tonight.

Mr. MacKinnon said he had "refused to discuss the strike except to inform them (the union representatives) that their representations could not be properly dealt with until such time as ministers vitally interested—such as Agriculture Minister Gardiner and Finance Minister Ilsley—had time to study the matter."

Mr. Gardiner is at present attending the world food conference in Copenhagen while Mr. Ilsley is on holiday in England after a meeting of Unrra in Switzerland.

He said he had been asked if he would "personally support" the farmers' request that the possibility be investigated of "tying up" the prices farmers received for their products with their operation costs. He had replied he would "be very glad to submit the matter to my cabinet colleagues."

Mr. MacKinnon said it was impossible to give a "snap decision" to the farmers' demands. Some of the representations deserved thorough investigation and would be sympathetically dealt with.

He emphasized, "We are not slamming the door in their faces," but no more definite assurance could be given that the government was willing to meet the farmers' demands until the matter had been thoroughly discussed by the cabinet, particularly by Mr. Gardiner and Mr. Ilsley.

Dispatches from Alberta today said 20,000 Alberta farmers had their pickets organized to try and block grain, dairy products and livestock from reaching the market after midnight tonight.

Weather Forecast

Victoria and Vicinity—Saturday: Cloudy in morning, clear by afternoon, moderate southwest winds increasing to strong by late afternoon.

STUTTGART (AP)—James F. Byrnes, United States Secretary of State, today urged the early establishment of a centralized German government, rejected France's claim to the Rhineland and Ruhr and warned Russia the United States does not consider Germany's eastern boundary fixed on the Oder.

In an unprecedented speech regarded as the most important American foreign policy pronouncement since the end of the war, Mr. Byrnes outlined a broad plan for eventual unification of the German people under a national council which, he said, should be charged with drafting a federal constitution for a "United States of Germany."

(The prepared text of Mr. Byrnes' address contained the phrase a "United States of Germany" in his recommendation for a federal German constitution. In delivery, however, the Secretary omitted the phrase, saying instead: "A federal constitution for Germany.")

At the same time Mr. Byrnes made plain the intention of the United States to continue indefinitely her interest in European affairs and emphasized that "security forces probably will have to remain in Germany for a long period."

"I want no misunderstanding," Mr. Byrnes said. "We will not shrink our duty. We are not withdrawing. As long as an occupation force is required in Germany, the Army of the United States will be part of that occupation force."

The State Secretary addressed an audience of German and Allied leaders in this seat of the German Provisional Government for the U.S. zone.

While emphasizing the determination of the United States to see Germany rise again as a peaceful, centralized nation, Mr. Byrnes rejected French claims to the Rhineland and Ruhr and warned Poland and Russia that the United States does not consider Germany's eastern boundary fixed on the Oder.

Territories now occupied by Poland and Russia were "provisionally assigned" at Potsdam, Mr. Byrnes asserted, and "the protocol of the Potsdam conference makes clear the heads of government did not agree to support at the peace settlement the cession of any particular area."

Just because suffering and distress in Germany is inevitable," he said, "the American government is unwilling to accept the responsibility for the needless aggravation of economic distress."

Mr. Byrnes further defined the American policy toward Germany under the following general points:

1. The United States "will oppose harsh and vengeful measures (against Germany) which obstruct an effective peace. We will oppose soft measures which invite the breaking down of peace."

2. The United States will not agree to taking from Germany greater reparations than were provided by the Potsdam agreement.

3. The boundaries of new Germany should be defined now.

4. The United States is "convinced" in the interest of Germany, Austria "and the peace of Europe," that the two countries "should pursue their separate ways."

5. The United States favors sufficient control over all of Germany, including the Rhineland and the Ruhr, to prevent the use of German resources "for destructive purposes."

Britain Approves, France Scores U.S. Proposals For New Germany

LONDON (CP)—A Foreign Office spokesman said that several passages of United States State Secretary Byrnes' speech at Stuttgart today were in agreement with expressed British policy. He mentioned in particular the proposal that the Saar belong to France.

PARIS (CP)—State Secretary Byrnes' proposal, made in Stuttgart today, for early establishment of a central German provisional government was described as "premature and imprecise" by a French Foreign Office spokesman.

He also criticized Mr. Byrnes' suggestion of Allied demilitarized control over all Germany, including the Ruhr and Rhineland. The latter, the spokesman said, must be under separate control, since controls covering all Germany are bound to be ineffective.

In the French view demilitarization of the Ruhr could be assured only by a control agency with independent political powers.

Speaking of Mr. Byrnes' proposal for early creation of a central German government, the spokesman said such a government would only be possible when democratic local governments were established.

Urges Libraries Like Department Stores

VANCOUVER (CP) — John Paul Jones, a Seattle architect, told 250 members of the Pacific Northwest Library Association at a meeting here Thursday night that libraries should be "brought down from the heights and put on the streets."

Mr. Jones said libraries should be like department stores, with "large show windows to let folks know they are missing something." He told the assembled librarians the "modular" principle of library construction is not a cure-all, and described the more modern principle of having beams serve the double purpose of supports and air vents.

He pointed out modern trends were away from the "over-embellished" type of architecture formerly "perpetrated on the public."

Miners' Delegation Asks Removal Of Officials

VANCOUVER (CP) — Removal of British Columbia Department of Mines officers who reported a 44-hour week in the mining industry would be impracticable will be sought by the regional union of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelters Workers (C.I.O.), it was announced here Thursday night.

F. W. Henne, union president, said a meeting of the policy committee had adopted a resolution authorizing the sending of a delegation to Victoria to meet with the cabinet and demand removal of the mines department officers Dr. John F. Walker, deputy minister of mines; James Dickson, chief mines inspector, and Dr. Hartley Sargent, chief mining engineer.

Eisenhower Gets Report On Spies In Canada

NEW YORK (CP) — A summary of the findings of the Royal Commission which recently investigated Russian espionage in Canada has been prepared for Gen. Eisenhower, Chief of Staff of the United States Army, the New York Herald Tribune said in a page one story today.

No official explanation was given as to why the 733-page commission report had been boiled down to a brief but comprehensive document although the newspaper said one inference was that "Gen. Eisenhower wants the important revelations made available in easy-to-read form for many of his top officers."

Prairies' Wheat Crop Estimated 83,500,000 Bushels Over Average

WINNIPEG (CP) — The Winnipeg Tribune said today in a review of 1946 wheat crop prospects that the prairie provinces will harvest 430,500,000 bushels compared with 282,000,000 bushels last year and the 10-year average of 347,000,000.

The average yield an acre was estimated at 17.1 bushels, compared with about 15 bushels over the 10-year period.

In independent reports also issued today, the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways said wheat outturns over the prairies remained heaviest on the average in Manitoba, most variable in Saskatchewan and generally closer to the average in Alberta.

The Tribune said many factors had contributed to taking a toll of the crop, with losses from sawfly activity alone estimated at a minimum of 25,000,000 bushels.

The estimated yield by provinces, average an acre and last year's and a five-year (1938-42) average in brackets:

Manitoba — 60,300,000; 21.3 (40,000,000; 56,340,000);

Saskatchewan — 224,000,000; 15.1 (162,000,000; 225,360,000);

Alberta — 146,200,000; 19.3 (80,000,000; 151,860,000).

Installation Of Bishop Performed With Ceremony

Before a large congregation, attended by representatives of the provincial government, City Council and public organizations, the Most Rev. James Hill, D.D., was solemnly installed as Victoria's new Roman Catholic Bishop at a ceremony in St. Ann's Cathedral Thursday night.

The ceremony began with the Bishop, accompanied by the Most Rev. W. M. Duke, D.D., Archbishop of Vancouver, and visiting clergy entering the main door of the cathedral where the Bishop was received by the Administrator, Monsignor A. B. W. Wood. The Bishop walked to the altar while a choir sang the Te Deum.

The Archbishop of Vancouver officiated at the ceremony and preached the sermon. Following installation, the clergy paid homage to the new Bishop after hearing Johnson, Bishop of Nelson, and signor Wood. Among the visiting clergy was the Most Rev. M. M. Johnson, Bishop of Nelson, and the Most Rev. P. F. Pocock, Bishop of Saskatoon; Msgrs. L. Forget, D.P., of Vancouver, M. J. O'Gorman of Edmonton and Basil Merkle, secretary of the Canadian Bishops in Ottawa.

Welcoming the Bishop to the diocese, Msgr. Wood pointed out that the installation ceremony coincided with the opening of the second century of the existence of the Roman Catholic diocese.

"You will doubtless find that the often heroic labors of your venerated predecessors have laid a solid foundation fitted to meet the problems arising out of modern conditions," said Msgr. Wood.

HISTORY TRACED

In his sermon, the Archbishop of Vancouver traced the history of the Roman Catholic Church and pointed out that it had expanded to all parts of the world. "In our time more than any other period during the 20 centuries of the history of the world, the Catholic Church has witnessed a material and spiritual upheaval that seemed destined to overthrow not only Christianity in Europe, but the very foundations of Christianity itself," stated Archbishop Duke.

In reply to the Archbishop's sermon, the new Bishop expressed his gratitude for the welcome and reception he received from his new diocese. The Bishop said that the life of a diocese throughout a century in any age and in any land, under any conditions, meant much in labor and self-sacrifice. Here, he said, it represented the intrepid and heroic sacrifices of pioneer life.

"I come," he said, "with heart and mind and will and disposition fashioned and ever ready to devote myself wholly, entirely, completely and unreservedly to your welfare."

MANY PRESENT

Among those present at the ceremony were Attorney-General Gordon Wismer, K.C., and Mrs. Gordon Wismer; Miss Ann Macmaster, national president, C.W.O. of Canada; Mr. Justice C. H. O'Halloran and Mrs. O'Halloran, Rev. D. L. Gordon, president, Ministerial Association; Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P.; Rear-Admiral E. Rollo Mainguy, O.B.E., R.C.N., and Mrs. Mainguy, Lt.-Col. Travis, M.C., V.D., and Mrs. Travis, Chief Constable J. A. McLellan and Mrs. J. A. McLellan, Maj. L. Bullock-Webster represented the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province.

The Bishop of Victoria arrived in this city yesterday and was met at the boat by Premier John Hart. He celebrated his first mass in Victoria this morning in the chapel of St. Ann's Academy, and on Sunday morning, Sept. 8, he will sing his first Pontifical Mass in St. Andrew's Cathedral. Victoria's new Bishop was consecrated July 25 at Chatham, N.B. Ordained in 1923 at St. Thomas University, Chatham, he was rector there 1927 to 1945. He was recently pastor of St. Thomas Aquinas Church in Campbellton, N.B.

14 Constituencies In Australia Watched

CANBERRA (CP) — Established parties familiar to Australian voters will be the main contestants in the federal general election Sept. 13.

They are the Labor, Liberal and Country Parties which, when the 17th Australian Parliament was dissolved for the election, held between them all 74 seats representing the six states in the House of Representatives. A 5th seat for the federally-administered Northern Territory was occupied by an independent member.

Labor, led by Prime Minister Joseph Benedict Chifley, a trade unionist for 35 years, goes to the polls at peak strength with 49 of the 75 seats in the House, compared with the Liberals' 15 and the Country Party's 10.

19 SENATE CONTESTS

The Labor Party also held 21 of 36 Senate seats, including 17 which are not open to election this year. Due to a vacancy caused by death, one more than the usual 18 will be contested this year, and of those Labor held four at dissolution, Liberals 11, Country Party three and there was one Liberal sometimes classed as an Independent.

Labor on one side and seeking re-election, opposed by the Liberal and Country Parties working together on the other, will provide the important fight.

Australians who follow politics closely judge the election will be decided largely by voters in federal divisions which did not elect Labor representatives until 1940, when the United Australia Party, led by Robert G. Menzies, who now is Liberal leader, squeezed back into office with the Country Party with a total of only 38 seats.

In that Parliament Labor held 36 seats, which it increased to 49 in the landslide general election in 1943. Some of Labor's gains in the past two elections are acknowledged to be solid, but it is in about 14 of the divisions acquired by Labor during the war, but not yet confirmed as solid gains, that the results are expected to be telling.

Observers think that if Labor holds all 14 its re-election is

Provinces Must Fight Centralization, McGeer Declares

VANCOUVER (CP)—Senator
G. G. McGeer, just back from Ottawa, told interviewers here today that "the drift to centralization of all governmental control
in Ottawa is definitely on," adding that it is an "exceedingly strong drift."

"The provinces have to fight
with all their power to stop this drift," he said. "We can't submit the control of the destinies of the west to Ottawa."

Senator McGeer described his recent fight in the Senate over the Foreign Exchange Control Bill, "the first in a long series of struggles to recapture responsible government for the people."

He added that the bill would have virtually put the people and trade, including tourist trade, in jail to five civil servants. The bill gave the group, he said,
greater power than Parliament
had given the government itself
as part of its temporary war powers.

Heirens To Spend Minimum Of 61 Years Before Parole

CHICAGO (AP)—Seventeen-year-old William Heirens was sentenced Thursday to imprisonment for his natural life for the kidnap killing of Suzanne Deg-nan and the fatal stabbing of two women. He received three consecutive life sentences.

State's Attorney William J.
Tuohy made the recommendation for the life sentences instead of the death penalty, telling the court the state had "very little evidence against Heirens" other than his confessions.

Heirens, pale-faced, was asked
by Chief Justice Harold G. Ward, who passed the sentences, if he had anything to say.

With bowed head he said: "I want to express to the court my deepest sorrow for what I have done . . . His voice trailed off.

Judge Ward also imposed sentences of one to 20 years or one year to life on 26 charges of robbery, burglary or assault.
These sentences were set to run concurrently with each other,
but consecutively to the three separate life terms.

Wilbert F. Crowley, assistant state's attorney, said Heirens
would have to serve a minimum of 61 years under the various sentences before he could become eligible for parole.

Mrs. George Heirens, the defendant's mother, collapsed in court after sentence was passed.

Police said Green became confused while crossing Kingsway

two hours after being admitted to hospital with head and internal injuries.

World Board May Ask Canada Store 100,000,000 Bushels Wheat

COPENHAGEN (CP)—Canada
may be asked to store wheat stocks of 100,000,000 bushels or more for international use if proposals for a World Food Board, now under consideration
by the United Nations' Food and Agricultural Organization, are approved.

The board plan emphasizes the need of establishing buffer stocks
of food for use in the event of hunger anywhere. Purchase of surpluses to maintain such stocks would assist in stabilizing prices.

A report to the F.A.O. by a committee of economists said
there must be close study of whether it would be better to have the international board own
all such stocks or whether governments of members of the United Nations should share the responsibility.

"In normal times a number of governments hold apart from their pipeline stocks special reserves as part of an ever-normal
granary program or as a price control measure or as a security
reserve in case of war," the committee reported.

"The danger that governments would immediately unload these responsibilities onto the world food board, is probably theoretical; they are more likely to continue their own independent insurance policies in this matter . . . the alternative has been suggested of keeping whole or major parts of buffer stocks

in the hands of several governments. When they prefer to transfer their stock-holding responsibilities to the board it will signify confidence in the board's ability to cover their needs."

Wheat is of particular value
for buffer stock arrangements
because it keeps well.

The committee suggested the effective size of the buffer stock
of any commodity would be the quantity held internationally,
plus national stocks member governments were prepared to manage in accordance with board
rules and make available for use when needed.

In some commodities the size of the stock should equal 50 to 100 per cent of an average year's international trade. If Canada undertook storage operations under this plan, authorities say
she would have to keep at least 100,000,000 bushels on hand as her international wheat trade has run more than 200,000,000 bushels.

Up to 800,000,000 bushels of wheat were stored temporarily
by Canada during the Second World War. Storage space was cleared this year when all available wheat was shipped to Britain to alleviate a shortage there.

Called Propaganda

VANCOUVER (CP)—Canadian Information Service and the National Film Board were branded
as "government propaganda
mills" Thursday by John G.
Diefenbaker, Progressive-Conservative Member of the Commons for Lake Centre, Sask.

"They cost the taxpayers more than $7,000,000 in 1945 and apparently there is no end in sight,"
the Prince Albert lawyer said in an interview. With Mrs. Diefenbaker, he is here for a week's vacation. He said the National Film Board alone had increased its staff from 40 in 1939 to 750
now.

Russia Blamed For Fear, Greed, Pride

WINNIPEG (CP)—All evil
sprang from fear, pride and greed, the Most Rev. Geoffrey F. Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury, told the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada, in session here, and
"Russia possesses all three."

As far as anyone could read Russia's mind, "they are urging her along the course the chief has chosen."

While the democracies were not entirely free from these three evils in the past or present, Archbishop Fisher said,
"yet Russia has tied them all to
a political creed and the democracies cannot fight a misguided creed by self-interest—for that is the root of all evil—but can fight only through a better creed."

"The democracies can only meet the pressure by ridding themselves of the disease of self-love. And the only power that can cast out self-interest is the power that comes from making God above all else in this temporal life."

Blind Man Builds His Own House

VANCOUVER (CP)—Ivan Ko-
nopski, 36, has solved his own housing problem despite the fact that he is totally blind.

He has built his own house and is living in it today although it is not completely finished. The outside still has to be stuccoed
and there is some interior finishing to be completed.

The blind man has been working on the four-room cottage almost unaided for the last 18 months.

Konopski, a former Manitoba
farm boy, has been sightless from the age of three years—when his eyes were accidentally injured by a pair of scissors.

Says Finland, Russia
Get Canadian Markets

VANCOUVER (CP)—C. J.
Savill, director of the Hampton
Timber Company Ltd., Hampton, Eng., told interviewers here that Finland and Russia are capturing markets formerly Canadian.

"In the last seven weeks before we left England, seven full cargoes of fir arrived from Finland and Russia," he said.

"In Iceland, Russia paid twice
as much as England for cod,
although she had a surplus of fish herself. She then destroyed
the fish she had bought," he added.

Mr. Hampton, here to survey
the lumber exporting business, said Russia would operate at a loss financially to capture markets where she could spread Communist propaganda.

MR. BYRNES CLEARS THE AIR

STRIPPED OF ITS POINTED WARNING
that the United States does not propose to "stand idly by" while Russia tries to impose her Communist policies on the whole of Germany, the speech which Secretary of State James F. Byrnes delivered in Stuttgart today will either widen the gulf separating the western Allies from the Soviet Union, or set a new pattern of discussion
in the interests of an enduring peace on the lines envisioned by the provisions of the United Nations Charter. Not only was the American statesman's utterance one of the most forthright pronouncements of his country's intentions heard since the end-of-the Second World War; its categorical language in respect of the future of the former Third Reich should serve an essentially useful purpose in impressing all sensible Germans with Anglo-Saxon regard for their democratic welfare.

In particular, Mr. Byrnes has pledged the United States to remain a factor in European policy so long as her influence may be needed for the economic and political restoration of Germany—an undertaking which rules out any possibility of the great Republic resuming an isolationist role. With this declaration emphatic in its clarity,
therefore, the way is now opened for closer collaboration between the Washington and London governments—the principal protagonists of a Germany united for her own good and for the benefit of Europe and the world. Nothing in the plain speech of the American Secretary of State, however, could be interpreted in Moscow as an indication that the practical assistance of the Soviet Union in the establishment of law and order in Germany and elsewhere is unwanted. On the contrary, a Russia conscientiously committed to the principles of the United Nations Charter should be able to detect in the Byrnes dictum an open invitation to further the cause on which humanity bases its fondest hopes.

Nor is there anything in the Stuttgart
pronouncement to suggest the least change
in Allied determination to deal sternly with the nation responsible for plunging the world into war seven years ago. Germany's political and economic revival would be in no way synonymous with the restoration of facilities with which she might prepare another bid for world domination. What is obvious to the governments of both Britain and the United States, on the other hand, is that the mistakes of the past must be avoided at all costs. One of Hitler's principal whipping boys was the Treaty of Versailles and what he called its brutal inequalities and preposterous terms. And it will not be seriously argued that the Allied nations are incompetent to devise ways and means of preventing the remnants of the old Nazi guard from emulating the "blood-and-iron" treachery which robbed the democracies of victory in peace after the First Great War.

For these and other obvious reasons,
Mr. Byrnes has hinted to the Soviet Union that Germany is ripe for an adventure in practical democracy—in her own and in the world's best interests—and that the imposition of another form of totalitarianism at this stage, either by the zonal piecemeal process or an attempt at a wider application
by force, would be suicidal for all concerned. What is more, the United States proposes to block any such scheme. It may also be taken for granted that American objection to the internationalization of the Ruhr and the Rhineland is based on similar premises—that such a procedure would be a dangerous repetition of some of the abortive and disastrous formulas which provoked final German refusal to carry out the terms of the Treaty of Versailles. While there will be a good deal of hostility, in some quarters to the Secretary's speech, it should have the beneficial effect of clearing the air.

FARMERS' STRIKE

ALBERTA AND SASKATCHEWAN
farmers are nearing zero hour for a strike for parity prices—a move which is symptomatic of the difficulty of controlling prices in one field and not in another. Pressure exercised by organized labor in industry to obtain higher wages on the basis of higher living costs was bound sooner or later to reflect itself in agriculture.

After all, farmers have to buy their machinery—the products of tariff-protected industry to boot—in order to farm their land and produce crops at a highly-competitive world market price. If the price they receive for their goods is too low to provide them with the commodities and services
they require in exchange, they could refuse to sell. Under normal conditions, of course, prices would rise until they were high enough to attract the farmer to market his products. But when the government is forced by the abnormal circumstances of war to subsidize production, either in the agricultural or industrial field, or when there is no "free market," a whole series of integrated operations begin to function; and these, in turn, create various pressures in the political field. In the "free market" today in Chicago, for instance, wheat is fetching around $1.95 per bushel. In Canada

the Wheat Board, which controls the market, cannot fix a price until after the wheat is marketed; but its contract price of $1.55
with Great Britain is naturally compared with what the American farmer obtains today in the "free" world market.

Farmers complain that the Farm Stabilization Board is intended primarily to maintain floor prices, and that these have no relation to "parity." They demand that prices must rise in relative proportion to the rise
in commodity prices which are largely determined by wages. Thus the farmers are asking for a fact-finding board to define this relation in understandable terms—for their own benefit and for the edification of the public. The government is considering the appointment of a Royal Commission for this purpose. A strike may thus be averted.

LUMBER WITHOUT IDEOLOGY

BRITISH COLUMBIA LUMBER EXPORTers are continually being warned that Russia, Sweden and Finland are out to re-establish themselves in the United Kingdom market at the expense of this country. Of course they are. A timber operator from Britain, interviewed in Vancouver yesterday, added his voice to the familiar chorus and intimated that before he left England seven full cargoes had arrived there from the Soviet Union and Finland, and that Russia
"would operate at a loss financially to capture markets where she could spread Communist propaganda."

Apart from the fact that the United Kingdom is not now, never has been, and is not likely to become an importer of "ideological lumber," there is little in these predictions to cause this country's exporters
the least alarm. They know from past experience that geography, availability of supply, and price will continue to govern British purchases of lumber when trading conditions are back on a more or less normal basis. Take, for example, the last full business year before the war, 1938, with the figures computed in standards of 1,980 feet
board measurement: In this 12-month period
the number of standards Britain imported from Sweden was 378,000, from Finland 470,000, from the Soviet Union 364,000 and from Canada 492,000. Between 1934 and 1938, incidentally, United Kingdom imports from these four countries rose or fell in almost identical proportions. In the five years 1934 to 1938, inclusive, the combined
exports to Britain from the foreign sources
mentioned add up to 7,316,000 standards,
compared with 2,137,000 standards from Canada during the same period. Though the foregoing details will not be news to Canada's lumber exporters, they serve to show that the British operator who was interviewed in Vancouver did not give out any new or novel information.

But there is a footnote which should be added to the comparative exports from this country to the United Kingdom in 1938 and 1945. In the pre-war year the Dominion's total of 492,000 standards returned the Canadian purveyors approximately $20,- 000,000, while in 1945 the volume dropped to 439,000 standards; but the buyer paid a trifle less than $40,000,000 for the smaller quantity! This financial comparison, in other words, helps to explain why houses cost so much to build in Victoria, and indicates that it will not be a case of Russia or the Baltic states "going after" the United Kingdom lumber market, but of Britain buying all she can at the lower price. Here again, however,
she will be confronted with sales competition occasioned by the requirements of a devastated Europe.

MORE DEVELOPMENTS COMING?

IT WILL BE A SOURCE OF GENUINE
gratification to the principal and staff
of Victoria's Provincial Normal School that they will return next Monday to the fine
building in which teacher training courses were given prior to the war. The return of this institution to Mount Tolmie, however, does not offer immediate relief for the chronically-overcrowded Victoria College which had looked forward to removal from the inadequate Craigdarroch Castle to the more suitable premises on Richmond Road.
It had been hoped that these two important educational departments could be housed
under the one roof, with a material reduction in operating costs through joint use of facilities. Such an arrangement cannot be made in time for the opening of the College
this month. Various alterations would be required. Hence, the College will be forced to put up with the inconveniences which were glaringly manifest last year, ameliorated
only by the provision of hutments, the first of which was scheduled to make its appearance on the grounds today.

Citizens of Greater Victoria, particularly those parents who pay $128 a year fees to permit their children to attend College, will hope that the restoration of the Normal School to its old home presages developments which will make adequate and suitable provision for the city's senior institution of learning. The situation now existing is one which will not appeal to the fair-minded.

It must be borne in mind, of course, that the prospective record enrollment at Craigdarroch for the approaching term cannot be taken as an index of a permanent condition. Approximately half those already registered are veterans. Their numbers will not keep up indefinitely. But, given reasonable prosperity, the College will still retain a student population too big for the facilities in current use. This situation calls for action.

THE PINK DANUBE

THE FUTURE of the Danube, which bears to eastern Europe something like the same relationship that the St. Lawrence bears to the economy of North America, has emerged as a formidable source of controversy between the United States and Yugoslavia. It has also become one of the chief and most contentious items on the agenda of the Paris Peace Conference.

"The blue Danube," this mighty river is called in Strauss' waltz. It was never really blue but a thick and dirty brown, about the color of Winnipeg's Red River. The common jest of diplomats now is that the Danube has turned pink and is rapidly becoming red.
For astride the Danube, or a large part of it, are camped the armies of Russia. Many nations front on the Danube and use its waters for their commerce, but for the moment Russia controls it.

THE ISSUE RAISED by Yugoslav notes to the United States and by American policy
at Paris is whether the Danube is to remain under any single state's control. It has been an issue in the vortex of eastern European politics for many generations. From the beginning of recent times efforts have been made to internationalize the river so that the goods of all adjoining countries could move along it on equal terms. But this policy has never been firmly established.

After the collapse of Germany in the First World War the Allies attempted to establish enduring international regulation of the river and to this end set up two commissions, one with jurisdiction over the upper reaches and the other to control its broader waters, accessible to ocean-going ships. All interested states were represented on these international bodies, which were under the general direction of the League of Nations.

WITH THE GROWING weakness of the League, Romania, which bestrides the sea entrance of the river, was able to press forward its claim for actual control of the waterway. The revived Germany of Hitler soon began to undermine the whole principle of international control and when Germany
went to war it soon absorbed this control entirely. The Danube became a part of Germany's internal transportation system,
vital to its military machine.

The question facing the peacemakers is whether the Danube is to remain under the domination of any nation. The United States began as early as the Potsdam Conference to propose the internationalization of this and other great European rivers of commerce and it is pressing for this plan at Paris
today. But its policy—on which the Big Four could not agree before the Paris Conference—cuts clearly across Russia's plans for the development of eastern Europe's commerce.

RUSSIA HAS SEWED up the trade of this region. It has opposed the United States'
plan to write into the peace treaties clauses guaranteeing free access for all nations to the business of this region, asserting that this is mere capitalist imperialism—a charge which provoked the bitterest exchanges of the conference to date.

If the American plan for a freely-trading world, based on the Atlantic Charter, is repugnant to Russia, so is the attempt to internationalize the Danube. Yugoslavia asserts that the United States is putting unfriendly pressure on it to this end by seizing its ships on the upper reaches of the river. The United States believes this seizure was covered by the Potsdam agreement and that if it had not taken over the shipping it would have been used to promote exclusive, Russian-controlled trade.

SUCH DISPUTES do nothing to establish the business of the river, on which the adjoining countries live. The Danube, an essential part of any economic settlement in that region, therefore remains one of the basic issues at Paris and a revealing test of Russia's future economic policies. Is this mighty channel, which has carried men's goods and armies since Roman times, to be used to serve Europe and the world at large or to become an instrument of a Communist economy, cut off from the West? The answer should come soon from Paris.

Quoting

It is now, in its moment of power, that labor most needs outspoken and honest criticism—Dr. Everett Case, president Colgate University.

Rt. Hon. Herbert Morrison, Britain's Lord
President of the Council, recalls that when he first stood for Lambeth Council, nine councillors had to be chosen from 27 candidates. It became obvious that some electors had started at the top and marked the first nine, while others counted nine from the bottom of the ballot paper. "This poor youth, Morrison, with a name beginning with
'M' was unlucky in the middle and I finished up at the bottom of the poll," he says.

"The Chinese . . . have had no experience of slavery as a people, even from such military conquerors as the Manchus, who supplied them merely with an imperial family and a few commanders and little else; they exploit each other ruthlessly, but success in such exploitation is rather admired than condemned. . . . The Chinese meet the world on equal terms, at least until it beats them down into illness, old age and despondency. Poverty never bothers them much; the poorest Chinese are often the gayest; their city and country masses are just as poor as the Indians; but it does not seem to affect their spirits, their activity, their energy . . . they are incapable of understanding Indian humility, Indian passivity, Indian resignation." — Vincent Sheehan, in "This House Against This House."

GLOBAL SURVEY

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
Associated Press Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Byrnes speech and other developments in Germany indicate that the British and Americans have accepted the challenge of the Russian refusal to co-operate either politically or economically; and that there will now be a relatively open contest for the support of the Germans themselves.

Russian talk about ultimately unifying Germany has been met by actual economic unification in the Anglo-American zones. Although this was done as a part of a general policy calling for control of Germany as an economic unit, Mr. Byrnes' phraseology makes it obvious that we also intend to reap such German gratitude as we can.

It is expected to reduce the costs of occupation and speed
the Germans toward a self-supporting status. But an automatic corollary is to put us right into a political campaign.

Months ago, when Russia's attitude toward Germany's future was still in doubt, some western diplomats felt it would take shape according to Moscow's beliefs on one issue. If Russia felt Communist control of a unified Germany, after occupation ended,
was possible, then she would favor such unification. If not,
she was expected to widen the breach between western and eastern occupation zones and attempt to solidify the position she already occupied.

The Russians finally came out for a whole Germany in the future, but blocked efforts to administer the country as an economic unit now.

There is a difference still, of course, between the Russian moves toward actual political control of Germany and the western desire to see western political beliefs on the ascendancy among the Germans. But the issue, obvious but unofficial here—

REPORT ON WIRE SHORTAGE:

"Weatherproof" wire—the kind that is used for connecting your home, office or factory to the electric power mains—is still in extremely short supply throughout the country. For all practical intents and purposes, there simply isn't any at all.

That doesn't mean we are sitting back and doing nothing about it. Not only are we constantly in touch with the manufacturers, but we are salvaging and putting back into service every foot of weatherproof wire on which we can lay our hands. Our linemen are scouring the overhead wires and taking down all lengths of "dead" weatherproof wire they can find throughout the city and district.

The yield so obtained is, of course, quite inadequate to take care of actual needs, but it illustrates how acute the situation is right now and the efforts we are making to meet it.

Until the manufacturers are again in a position to make deliveries, it will be quite impossible for us to supply service to customers, when and as requested. Much as we regret the delay and inconvenience this undoubtedly is causing many people, there is nothing more we can do, under the circumstances, than we are doing at the present time.

Transfer Exchange Not Effective Yet

Because of the large number of details to be worked out exchange of passes and transfers between B.C. Electric lines and former Blue Line buses will not take place for some time yet.

B.C. Electric officials said today changes to be effected in accounting as well as in other departments of the company would take longer than at first anticipated. They expected close to two weeks would be needed before the interchange of passes and transfers could be put into effect.

Y.M.C.A. Notes

A boy-girl Teen-Age Club is being formed by the Boys' Work Department of the Victoria Y.M.C.A., it was reported today by Cecil Lewis, chairman.

The club, which will be open to any local boy and girl between the ages of 15 to 18, inclusive, will start operating in the first week of October and an attractive program is being arranged. The inclusion of 'teen-age girls in Y.M.C.A. activities is a precedent in the history of the association.

The tentative program lined up for the boys calls for two weekly sessions on the gym floor, two periods of swimming a week, a club night when games will be played, instruction given in hobbies and photography. Each Friday night there will be a club dance.

Mr. Lewis reports that the fall-winter program for his department will be mapped out in full at a meeting to be held Monday night at 7.30 in the "Y" building. "We are planning the most active program we have ever organized," the chairman said.

It was learned today from Peter Spence, secretary of the boys' work branch, that the Victoria Y.M.C.A. plans to revive the Greater Victoria hobby fair next spring. It will be wide open to the youth of the greater city. He also reports that plans are under way to start a table tennis club within the department.

Bob Morrison, program secretary, gives the following information on the fall-winter general program:

Observatory Here Outstanding In Research Field

"The Saanich Dominion Government Astrophysical Observatory has contributed greatly to our knowledge of planets and has opened many new fields of research in the study of stars," said Dr. R. M. Petrie, senior astronomer, before the Rotary Club at luncheon Thursday afternoon.

The speaker said that since 1914 scientists at the observatory had furnished the world with practically all research data on the speed of stars, a subject which scientists knew very little about 30 years ago.

In his lecture entitled "The Speed of Stars," Dr. Petrie said that some planets were known to travel through space anywhere between 300,000 to 400,000 miles per hour. He also revealed that the earth formed part of a solar system composed of millions of stars and suns, and moving in one direction through space at a great speed.

United Effort Asked For Rehabilitation

"Successful rehabilitation means a suitable job and a home. This can only be accomplished by the united efforts of the state and the community," S. H. Okell, assistant district administrator of the Department of Veterans' Affairs, said in a letter which has been distributed to veterans' organizations.

"As government grants expire, a greater responsibility will fall upon the community," Mr. Okell continued. "Let us make the best use of the present."

He urged that wherever on Vancouver Island there was not yet an advisory committee to assist veterans' officers, one be formed as soon as possible.

Announcing B. C. Electric's New

Research Advisory Service

FOR BUSINESS, INDUSTRY and AGRICULTURE

TO HELP BRITISH COLUMBIA BUILD A GREATER TOMORROW

Because every citizen in British Columbia will share in fuller employment, greater opportunities and prosperity made possible by more efficient, more productive industries, the B.C. Electric has arranged to provide this new RESEARCH ADVISORY SERVICE. It is made available in co-operation with other member companies of the Northwest Light and Power Association and is offered now—at no charge—for the first time in Canada. This is an opportunity especially for smaller business firms to obtain expert research advice which otherwise might not be available.

WHAT IS THIS SERVICE?

Research laboratories on this continent and over the world are constantly bringing to light new information of a scientific and technical nature. Though non-confidential, and of great importance in solving the problems of industry, to date there has been no effective method of disseminating the information to industries. The RESEARCH ADVISORY SERVICE gathers this information, tabulates it and prepares it in report form, available upon request on business letterhead by individual businesses and industries.

IS IT AUTHORITATIVE?

The information originates in the research laboratories of private industries, colleges and universities and in government research departments. There are 900 such co-operating laboratories in Canada, the United States and Great Britain, which have been listed and catalogued according to their specialized experience and knowledge. Thus, through this service, a vast fund of scientific and technical information from authoritative sources is made available.

WHAT PROBLEMS DOES IT SOLVE?

The RESEARCH ADVISORY SERVICE assists in solving industry's problems in two ways: (1) By referring to "Previous Problems" solved for other inquirers. The Pocket Index "Solving Industry's Problems," already listing 1200 problems with authentic answers, indexed under 50 subject headings, may be obtained from the RESEARCH ADVISORY SERVICE Director. In requesting solutions state the index code number. (2) In the case of "New Problems" by referring to research laboratories and sources most likely to have the desired information. To give the laboratories a full appreciation of the problems, complete information must be included with the request.

WHO MAY USE THIS SERVICE?

Any British Columbia enterprise engaged in business, industry or agriculture is invited to use the RESEARCH ADVISORY SERVICE. We have prepared a booklet explaining the service fully, a copy of which will be mailed on request written on your letterhead. There is no charge for the service and it is given confidentially.

Bermuda Yields To Motor Car—Horse On Way Out

A horse looks down its nose at a motor car on Queen Street in Hamilton, Bermuda, where cars are coming to stay at last (if they behave themselves). Bicycle rider, as die-hard as the horse, won't even look at the petrol buggy.

HAMILTON, Bermuda — The last major stronghold of the hay-power buggy and the bicycle has decided to recognize that horseless contraption propelled by petrol.

And the recognition, which goes into effect Sept. 1, under the Bermuda Legislature's "Motor Car Act 1946," treats the motor car like a poor relation and still gives the horse the last whinny.

During the war, when British and U.S. military forces shocked the living daylights out of the horses by buzzing up and down the narrow roads in assorted trucks, staff cars, buses and jeeps, the old guard thought the horse and buggy days were going to be crowded right into the pasture for good.

But the Legislature gave the horse the upper hoof again, and most of those big, outlandish vehicles will get eviction notices.

Under the Motor Car Act, Bermudians can have one car to a family or household, providing that car is no longer than 160 inches, no wider than 70 inches, and has no more than 10 horsepower. British formula, which equals a little more than 30 horsepower under the formula used in advertisements in the U.S., where motor cars are called automobiles.

The license fee is $6 per unit of horsepower, making the registration of a larger car somewhat expensive if larger cars were legal, which they aren't.

NO JALOPIES

There will be no second-hand jalopies; the importation of used cars (except that one car your family or household is allowed) is against the Motor Car Act. If you buy a car in Bermuda today, you can't get a license for another one for five years. Unless you get rid of the first one before that time; then you only have to wait a year.

The law will regulate the color of the paint job on Bermuda's cars, and their appearance, thus giving the Transport Control Board the right to insist that you get busy and wash your car, right now.

The speed limit has been set at 20 miles an hour—when there isn't a horse and buggy in front of you.

And trucks, also limited in size to 12 horsepower and 162 inches length, won't be licensed unless the owner can prove he can't make his deliveries by horse or in a bicycle basket. What trucks do get licensed won't be allowed to operate on Sunday; somebody might use them for an outing, and clutter up the roads.

None of this really affects the tourist trade, because you can't get a license to drive a motor car in Bermuda until you've been there 30 days.

But the horse is still having a little trouble with the military people. Army and navy vehicles are subject to the regulations, of course, under certain special arrangements. The British forces have already removed most of their over-sized vehicles from general use, and efforts are being made, it is reported, to get the U.S. forces to use smaller cars and trucks and to reduce their speed.

Even Bermuda is going to have a difficult time convincing U.S. jeep drivers that there is any way to operate except at full speed ahead or stop.

Search For Materials Adds To Cost Of Building Construction

Prospective home-owners puzzled by sky-rocketing building costs were given a new reason today for jumps in prices.

According to the representative of a large Victoria real estate and financial concern part of increased building costs is due to the fact that contractors and workmen must take time to search for all kinds of materials in short supply. He said he knew of many cases where contractors held meetings with their workmen to survey possibilities of securing materials to continue construction.

This, he pointed out, added to the length of time needed to complete houses and apartments. Meanwhile employers worried by shortages of labor were afraid to lay off workmen while awaiting more supplies.

This spokesman had a gloomy forecast for construction prospects in the coming months. He said that in Victoria there were absolutely no nails, hot water tanks, galvanized iron sheetings, plumbing supplies, cement or wiring. He added that oil burners ordered two years ago were just coming in now.

"The last sources of supply," he said, "are now drying up. There aren't even materials for repairs let alone new buildings."

He placed blame for the lack of lumber on the fact the best was being exported. Depletion of other materials was due to strikes.

He maintained that lath was impossible to secure because the manufacturers were unable to get a good enough price and were turning the materials used for this product into broom handles which would sell for more.

Some wiring, he said, was obtainable from the United States but high duty made it impossible for retailers to sell it under War-time Prices and Trade Board ceilings.

He predicted that unemployment in all building trades would come this winter as a result of inability to obtain supplies.

He urged everyone contemplating construction to use the present period for planning so that when supplies do resume contractors would have an idea of the number of orders to be filled.

Turner, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Larry Lucas, a cousin of the bride, and Cyril Gagnon. Mrs. Betty Malenfant sang "Ave Maria" during the signing of the register. Miss Church presided at the organ.

A reception was held at the Strathcona Hotel where Mrs. Turner and Mrs. McGowan assisted in receiving the guests. The bride's toast was proposed by James Pickard.

Cadboro Bay St. Georges' Ladies' Guild, Monday at 2.30, in hall.

Mr. and Mrs. David M. L. Farr leave the church following their marriage Thursday evening. Mrs. Farr is the daughter of J. Villiers-Fisher, Deputy Minister of Finance and Mrs. Villiers-Fisher.

Bright autumn colors predominated in floral decorations at St. Mary's Anglican Church Thursday evening for the marriage of Joan Rowena, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Villiers-Fisher, 158 Barkley Street, and David Morice Leigh Farr, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Morice Farr, Point Grey, Vancouver.

Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nums performed the marriage rites. It was a full choral service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in rich ivory satin, fashioned on princess lines with full court train. A heirloom lace veil, loaned for the occasion by an old friend, was held with a bandeau of pearls and orange blossoms. Under this the silk net veil, embroidered with lover's knots outlined in seed pearls and ivory satin appliques, cascaded to a full length train.

A single strand of pearls, belonging to her mother and, a shower bouquet of cream roses, white heather and maiden hair fern completed the bride's ensemble.

Miss Lorraine Conway of Vancouver, matron of honor, and Miss Laura Bapty, the bridesmaid, were gowned in peach taffeta, with coronets of autumn leaves in their hair, long taffeta and net gloves, and carried sheaves of peach shaded gladioli. Penelope Perry, wearing a Kate Greenaway frock in peach color, with colonial headpiece and bouquet, was a dainty flower girl, while Larry Perry, as page boy in ivory satin Kate Greenaway suit, carried the bride's train.

David Williams of Vancouver acted as best man, and the ushers were Capt. John Villiers-Fisher, John Sparks, William Mann and William Warner.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the young couple were assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Farr. Hon. John Hart proposed the bride's toast.

For a honeymoon, motoring up-island, the bride chose a gold tailored wool frock, with soft beige topcoat, brown hat, alligator shoes and purse and corsage bouquet of green orchids.

The bride and groom will leave shortly for Halifax, where Mr. Farr will lecture in history at Dalhousie University.

Her silk net veil, embroidered with lover's knots and cascaded from a lace halo and her shower bouquet was of gardenias and butterfly pink roses.

Mrs. G. W. Songhurst was matron of honor in a gown of turquoise crepe. Bridesmaids, Mrs. J. Trigellis and Miss Pat Taylor were in maize crepe with matching mitts and small caps trimmed with white lace. The attendants carried arm bouquets of white gladioli and mauve asters.

Little Karen Songhurst in a Colonial gown of maize taffeta with turquoise band in her hair made a dainty flower girl. She carried a Colonial bouquet of mauve and yellow asters centred with rosebuds.

Prices Will Continue To Rise
—Caution Urged

Living costs will jump sharply again, and new wage demands made to balance.

We will then be helpless in the spiral of inflation. It would continue till buyers, finally dismayed by the devaluation of their dollar through inflated prices, would refuse to purchase—at all. The end result would be a buyers' strike—like the one we had in the spring of 1920, when the average cost of living had been swollen by 108 per cent. Panic curtailment of production would be the dreary result. Then would come the lay-offs, unemployment—a depression.

Can such a tragic boom be prevented? Only a rash prophet would predict the future now. The danger of higher prices and a boom-and-bust cycle is still present. People will be tempted to buy many things with an eye to still higher costs. This unrestrained buying is the spark which could start the fatal chain reaction in our economy. One of the strongest forces which anyone can exert against inflation is to buy only what is actually needed for daily requirements. We must give production time to catch up.

The full facts of what lies ahead and how inflation can be prevented is told in the article, "How High Will Prices Go?" in the October edition of the American Magazine, on sale today at your magazine dealers.

The American Magazine is distributed on Vancouver Island by Lovick's News Agency, Victoria, B.C.

Dorothy Dix

COUPLE SMART IN AVOIDING MARRIAGE WHILE MAN ATTENDS COLLEGE

Dear Miss Dix: A sailor whom I like very much, but to whom I am not engaged, has been discharged from the service and plans to attend school, which I approve of very much. He tells me he loves me and wants me to be his wife some day. I feel the same way about him, as he has all the characteristics I would desire in a husband, but I am not ready to settle down yet as I am only 20 years old.

Now here is my problem: Many of the men I have gone with before meeting my sailor and to whom I have written friendly letters during the war, are being discharged and have asked me for dates. As yet I haven't gone out with any of them, yet I hate to refuse their invitations for I know they are lonely and want girl friends. But, on the other hand, if I go with them, I am afraid of losing my boy friend.

WISE DECISION

Answer: I think you and your friend seems to be very wisely taking the advice—friendship with all, entangling alliances with none—and in this you show good, hard, common sense. He realizes that if he is going to continue his education and fit himself for any profession, it will take years of study to do it before he can be in a position to get married and support a family. So when he says he wants to marry you "some day" it is a vague prospect for you.

Also, being a sensible girl, you must realize that in that time he will meet many different people and that he will change himself, and you may not then be the girl of his dreams. On your part, you will also change and your taste in men will be entirely different from what it is now. For you to deny yourself all companionship of men and all the good times they offer you on the offchance that you will still be in love with this man at some time in an undated future will be folly. Don't do it.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Do you think a young man of 25 should marry a woman 11 years older than himself? He just got out of the army and never bothered with girls before he went away. She is a divorced woman and they have only known each other a short time.

ANXIOUS MOTHER.

Answer: Evidently your son is about to be devoured by a lady wolf, and the only way you can save him is to separate him from her as soon as possible. Take him on a trip where he will meet pretty girls in his own age class and he will forget all about her in a week's time.

Monty At Jasper For 2-Day Rest United Effort Asked

JASPER, Alta. (CP)—The fact, two third-rate English golfers like Geo. Cole and Johnny Henderson played a round here Thursday isn't so newsy, but their score-keeper happened to be Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, so the gallery followed Monty instead of the tournament semifinalists.

Wearing a ski jacket and without hat, he followed the two men around the course, jotting down their strokes and as a matter of fact giving them some pointed advice.

Lt.-Col. Cole is his military assistant and Maj. Henderson is his aide.

The famous soldier arrived at this resort to take a two-day rest on his North American tour. When he got off the train he took a close look at a Haida Indian totem pole which tells the story of one of the greatest fighters of that Queen Charlotte Island warlike tribe.

Then he moved to the Jasper Park Lodge and moved into the luxurious cabin once occupied by the King and Queen.

Debate Remarriage Of Divorced Persons

WINNIPEG (CP)—Notice of a motion which would allow divorced persons to remarry within the church was given Thursday to delegates to the general synod of the Church of England in Canada by Reginald V. Harris of Halifax.

The motion, which is expected to meet heavy opposition from some quarters, proposes that any person whose marriage has been dissolved or annulled may apply to the bishop of his or her diocese for permission to remarry.

The conditions would include a declaration that neither the applicant nor the intended spouse had been found guilty of adultery by a court of law. Provided proper investigation is made, the bishop would be given power to approve or reject the application.

It is expected the proposal will reach the floor of a joint session of the two houses of the synod next Tuesday, although it may be delayed by the fact that the highly-contentious report on partial union with the United Church is scheduled for the same day.

Mr. Harris' motion also proposes that an Anglican clergyman be forbidden from refusing to accord the sacraments or other church privileges to "the innocent party in a divorce granted for adultery and who under civil sanction has been remarried."

Fisherman Unhurt In Night Collision With C.P.R. Ferry

Angus Thomas, Indian fisherman from Steveston, was home safely today following an accident early Thursday morning when his fishing vessel Dixie II was cut in two by the night steamer Princess Elizabeth, one hour and 14 minutes out of Vancouver.

Thomas was picked up by the Elizabeth's crew who put over the side of their vessel in a lifeboat to rescue the fisherman. None the worse for his adventure, Thomas was brought to Victoria and taken to Sidney where he left for home in the evening aboard the Steveston ferry.

The two sections of his boat were towed into Steveston Thursday by a B.C. Packers Ltd. craft.

Iroquois, Kalakala Unaffected By Strike

Vessels of the Puget Sound Navigation Co., including the ferries Iroquois and Kalakala, are not affected by the present seamen's strike in the U.S., George Paulin, Victoria agent for the ferry company, reported today.

There had been a considerable number of inquiries at the Victoria office as to whether or not the ferries were affected, he said. Crews of the ferries were members of the Inland Boatmen's Union, he explained, adding no interruption of ferry service was expected.

BURMA DOCTOR'S SEQUEL

"Burma Surgeon Returns," by Gordon S. Seagrave, M.D. (George J. McLeod, Ltd.)

HERE IS THE sequel to Dr. Seagrave's "Burma Surgeon," the story of his experiences in the battle of Burma. In this new book the author writes of the long road back in the Allied recapture of Burma. The story begins with the rebuilding of the Seagrave unit in Assam and the problems of the Burmese nurses placed in a strange environment for the first time in their lives.

Dr. Seagrave tells how his unit was the first to take the old refugee route from Burma covered with the bones of thousands of British, Chinese and Burmese who did not survive the retreat. He records how he managed to keep together the strange assortment of people who made up the unit—British, Americans, Burmese, Chinese and refugee Poles.

In addition to an adventure story "Burma Surgeon Returns" is an account of medicine practiced under the worst conditions of jungle life. The author tells of Burmese nurses carrying out their duties in casualty clearing stations under fire from the Japs and discusses the future of medicine and missions. The story ends as Dr. Seagrave is welcomed back to his hospital at Nankham.

FRENCH GENERAL'S AMBITIONS

"I Accuse de Gaulle," by Henri de Kerillis.

A MEMBER of the Chamber of Deputies, M. de Kerillis in "I Accuse de Gaulle" says that the famed French leader's closest advisers were members of the notorious pro-Nazi society, La Cagoule. He believes these men turned the general from his original purpose to become a political opportunist instead of a military chief leading his troops on the battlefield of North Africa and Normandy.

The author tells of intrigues which may help the reader to understand the persistent animosity of Roosevelt and Churchill.

Tenders On Kathleen To Be Called By C.P.R. In Week

Specifications for the reconstruction of Ss. Princess Kathleen are nearly complete and tenders for the work will be called in about a week, Capt. O. J. Williams, manager of C.P.R.'s B.C. Coast Service, announced today.

The Kathleen arrived home August 2 from five years' service overseas transporting troops, refugees and repatriates in the Mediterranean. She was berthed at the C.P.R. docks here where she remained during survey which was made to determine work necessary to return her to peacetime condition.

B.C. Comet Craft Seek U.S. Honors

GIBSON ISLAND, Md. (AP)—Among the 41 trim Comet class sailboats poised off Gibson Island today for the start of the ninth international championship races of the Comet Class Yacht Racing Association was Whirlwind, Vancouver entry brought 3,500 miles overland from British Columbia for the event.

Her skipper, Jack Elsey, will attempt to add the John Elman President's Cup Trophy, emblematic of international championship, to his victory in the English Bay Comet Fleet championship.

Another Vancouver entry, the runner-up in the English Bay competition, is Gordon Bush, who, although unable to bring his Comet, brought his crew, E. J. Curtis, and his sails, hoping to race a local boat.

The Canadians will be up against 39 other yachtsmen, all except one, champions of their local Comet fleets, in their attempt to wrest the Comet crown from Joseph Bartlett, Margate City, N.J., who sailed his Ronnie II to Victory on Barnegat Bay last year.

The race will cover three full sailing days over the six-mile course.

ill to de Gaulle during the war years. He quotes documents which throw fresh light on the general's ambitions, the assassination of Admiral Darlan, the organized desertions from the Richelieu and the struggle between de Gaulle and Giraud. ## HISTORY OF AIRMEN

"R.C.A.F. Overseas—The Fifth Year" (Oxford University Press).

THIS is the story of Canada's airmen in bomber, fighter, anti-submarine, anti-shiping and coastal operations between September, 1943, and August, 1944. It also tells of the preparations for invasion and the battle against the Nazi buzzbombs.

Col. Colin Gibson, Minister of National Defence for Air, says of the book in a forward: "The essential quality of heroism lies within our own Canadian boys, who having acquired the necessary skill, went far from home to demonstrate to friend and foe alike that a peace-loving Canadian fighting in a good cause is a formidable antagonist."

"I further commend this volume to the consideration of all Canadians because of its timeliness. The historians of the R.C.A.F. have not waited until the dust of years has accumulated on the records of our men—but they present the story only a few months after the heroic deeds themselves here recorded."

A glance through the index listing the airmen whose deeds are told finds names familiar to all Canadians associated in any way with their country's air force. Photographs from the British Ministry of Information, the R.A.F. and the R.C.A.F. illustrate the text.

Best Concert Season In Parks Ends Sunday

The most successful park concert season in the history of Beacon Hill will come to an end this Sunday when the Victoria Boys' Band plays the final concert, W. H. Warren, parks superintendent, said today.

During the months of June, July and August there was an average of three or four concerts staged weekly in the park he said, with record attendances.

The B.C. Electric Railway Company sponsored Wednesday night concerts; the city with the Youth Action Committee sponsored Friday night concerts; the Youth Action Committee by itself staged Monday night concerts; the Canadian Legion sponsored one on Labor Day; the city put on seven Sunday concerts, and a number of others were played by the Salvation Army Band, the Schools Band, the Victoria Boys' Band, and the Victoria Philharmonic Orchestra.

Complete Agreement Reached By Group For Atom Control

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. (AP)—Complete agreement by all 12 members of the scientific and technical committee of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission on a report on scientific aspects of atomic safeguards was reported authoritatively Thursday.

It was said to be the first time since the atomic energy question had come before the United Nations commission such unanimous agreement had been achieved.

The same 12 powers which hold seats on the commission are represented on the scientific committee—the 11 members of the Security Council, plus Canada. Gen. McNaughton is the Canadian representative on the commission. While details of the report were not divulged pending its publication, possibly next week, it was said the scientists commented at length on safeguards necessary to harness atomic energy, but made no recommendations. The report was described as a "doctor's diagnosis" rather than a prescription for atomic control.

The report explains the processes of atomic energy and tells where in these processes diversion can take place for military purposes unless safeguards are applied. It does not advocate any safeguards, merely telling where they can be placed, if desired, and where they would be easier or harder to apply.

In making up this first international report on atomic energy, the scientific and technical committee held 15 informal meetings.

Mayhew Mentioned For Revenue Post

R. W. Mayhew, Victoria member of the House of Commons since 1937, Thursday night was mentioned by Darcy O'Donnell, Canadian Press staff writer in a dispatch from Ottawa, as a possible successor to Revenue Minister McCann.

Dr. McCann, along with Resources Minister Glen and Veterans Minister Mackenzie, was reported by O'Donnell as slated for Senate appointment. O'Donnell also said Dr. McCann was mentioned as a successor to Health Minister Brooke Claxton.

Mr. Mayhew has been parliamentary assistant to Finance Minister Hiley for some time.

The dispatch also mentioned Mr. James Sinclair of Vancouver and Wing Cmdr. William Benedickson of Kenora, Ont., as possible successors, to Air Minister Gibson. In Ottawa Prime Minister King's announcement that he will reorganize the cabinet before the next session of Parliament in January has revived speculation of the nature and extent of the proposed shuffle.

Civil War Medal Sent To Victorian

William T. McGibbon, 1268 McKenzie Street, has received from the U.S. War Department an American Civil War service medal awarded to his uncle, Robert McGibbon, who walked from Fort Hope, Ont., to Buffalo, N.Y., to join the 1st United States Cavalry in 1858.

Mr. McGibbon read in the National Geographic Magazine of the possibility of securing the medals, wrote to the U.S. War Department and received the medal.

Arena Progress

Work is progressing on the building of the Memorial Arena, Ald. R. A. C. Dewar, arena committee chairman, said today, with most of the holes now having been dug for the footings.

In practically all cases the holes are now down to bed rock, although unexpected difficulties were encountered in one or two instances, he said. Hardpan was found in one place where it was not expected and blasting will probably have to be done.

The cribbing is being put in for one footing now and it is anticipated that pouring of concrete will start soon.

Tenders for the refrigeration plant will be called again shortly. Ald. Dewar said. C. T. Hamilton, consulting engineer, has been given instructions to go ahead and call for tenders as soon as he is ready with specifications.

Bureau Shows Cost Of Living Rising

OTTAWA (CP)—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported Thursday its official cost of living, calculated on the basis that 1935-39 equals 100, advanced from 125.1 at July 2 to 125.6 at Aug. 1 for a gain of 0.5 points, compared with a jump of 1.5 points in the preceding month.

The increase in the index since Aug. 1, 1939, when it stood at 100.8, now is 24.6 per cent.

The 1.5 point gain recorded for June resulted in an increase in the cost-of-living bonus paid civil servants and prompted a statement of explanation for the increase from Chairman Donald Gordon of the Prices Board.

The Bureau said foods, clothing, home furnishings and services and the miscellaneous budget groups had contributed to the increase at Aug. 1.

Discuss Airport Problems Thursday

Problems of obtaining civilian airport facilities for Victoria were discussed at a meeting of the Greater Victoria Airport Committee Thursday afternoon, which was attended by Maj.-Gen. Peakes, M.P., and R. W. Mayhew, M.P., Ald. B. J. Gadsden, committee chairman, said following the meeting.

He would give no indication of what transpired at the meeting, other than that progress had been made, and it was hoped to meet Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Reconstruction, when he visits Victoria the latter part of this month.

It is understood that Mr. Howe's letter asking the city to make up its mind about the merits of Pat Bay as opposed to Gordon Head airports, was under discussion.

The question of accepting or rejecting War Assets Corporation offer to sell the naval property for an undisclosed price was also scheduled to come up.

The agreement between Hudson's Bay Company and the city extending the option of first refusal for the tract of company-owned property on the proposed Gordon Head airport site has been extended to May 15, 1947, Ald. Gadsden said.

Aged Chief's Death Severs Historic Link

CHEMUNUS—With the death of Chief John Peter of the Penelekut band, Galiano Island, Vancouver Island has lost one of its last direct connection with the early days. It is believed the chief may have been more than 110 years old, although his age has been hard to establish.

The aged, almost blind Indian was found dying Wednesday by his son, at the foot of a cliff near his home at Portler Pass.

Chief John Peter was born on Galiano Island, worked on the old stone church at Cowichan in 1857, according to his son, Sammy Peter, and was at one time a gardener for Sir James Douglas.

He was appointed councillor of the Penelekut band and of the Kuper Island band in 1886, according to a letter signed by the Indian agent of that time, still in possession of his family.

Dominions' Secretary In City Sept. 15, 16

A visitor in Victoria Sept. 15 and 16 will be Lord Addison, British Dominions Secretary, who, accompanied by Lady Addison, is now making a tour of Canada as a guest of the Canadian government.

Lord and Lady Addison arrived in Canada aboard the Aquitania which brought home 1,279 Canadian servicemen and 943 service dependents. "Britain," Lord Addison said on his arrival, "is conscious of what we and free people everywhere owe to Canada for help in time of danger, throughout the war, and since it ended."

"...stepped up his stamina"

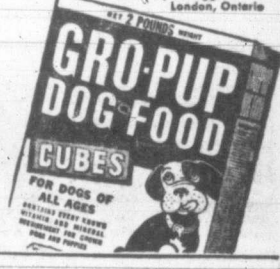

"I have been feeding my Boston Terrier on Gro-Pup for some time now and he has always taken to it readily. He is showing very good coat and seems to have stepped up his vigour and stamina on this diet. I find it more economical than other dog foods I have used and I recommend it whenever a dog-owner asks me about feeding."

(Signed) Mrs. R. Eckborg, 4624 Burke Street, Burnaby, B.C.

Why breeders feed Gro-Pup

BREEDERS KNOW it is not safe to try to raise dogs on "table scraps" alone. Dogs must have a properly balanced diet that gives them everything they need for strong bones, sound teeth, and a beautiful coat. That's why breeders feed Gro-Pup.

—feed your dog as famous kennels do...

A's Attendance Mark For Season 102,322

With a season's paid attendance of 102,322 Victoria Athletics closed out their home schedule in the Western International Baseball League last night by dropping a 5 to 1 decision to Bremerton Bluejackets. Over 2,500 fans turned out to bid the players farewell and honor Ted Norbert, popular manager of the local club, who was given a special night in appreciation of his fine work since taking over the team late in May.

In a pre-game ceremony at home plate Norbert received a large number of gifts from the club management, players and fans. Mrs. Norbert and their two children also received presents as the big crowd gave the baseball family a tremendous reception.

Although the Athletics were beaten the customers got plenty of entertainment as plate umpire Jack Rice had himself a big night in handing out fines and banishing players. League treasury will be sweetened to the extent of $25 as the result of $5 fines he plastered on Feder-meyer, Marshall, Curtis and Bliss of Bremerton and Pete Hughes of Victoria. In addition Marshall and Feder-meyer were chased to the showers for protesting a decision at the plate in which Bliss was called out attempting to score on a double steal. Bliss got his penalty for squawking over the same call. Curtis and Hughes were assessed for protesting called strikes.

FAIL IN CLUTCH

Failure to hit in the pinches and a weakened line-up through injuries cost Athletics the game. Victoria left 13 men stranded on the bags. "With catchers Stumpf and Paulson on the injured list, business manager Reg Patterson worked as receiver for the A's until lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth with Paulson taking over for the last inning. Second baseman Beans Marionetti only played part of the game owing to an injured finger while outfielder Bob Cherry left the game in the third inning after being struck on the hand by a pitched ball.

Bob Jensen on the mound for the A's and Hub Kittle for Bremerton each gave up six hits but the former suffered from three errors on the part of his teammates. Jensen struck out four to boost his total for the season to 294. Kittle fanned a like number and each gave up eight walks.

For six innings it was a scoreless affair with Bremerton breaking through for three runs in the seventh and two in the ninth. One of the latter two was a home run by shortstop Joe Ged-zius. A's scored their only run in the eighth when Dunn doubled and scored when Norbert, pinch hitting for Patterson, lined a double off the wire atop the left centre field fence.

The Athletics left on the mid-night boat last night for Vancouver en route to Yakima where they close out the season with four games, following which the players will either leave to join Coast League clubs or return to their respective homes. Manager Norbert will proceed by car to his home in New York.

Wenatchee, 1946 champion, closed out its finale in true title style with a 3 to 0 blanking of Spokane. Tacoma spoiled Vancouver's closure with an 11 to 9 triumph in 13 innings.

Salem, its home season ended last week, choked off a ninth inning Yakima rally to down the stars 8 to 6.

Three upper division berths still were undecided as the clubs changed opponents for the last time. Bremerton, four games behind second-place Salem, still held a slight mathematical chance of tying the Oregonians in the runner-up spot, but faced a challenge of its own in Tacoma, which trails the navy yard nine by three games.

Open salmon derby of the Port Alberni Tyee Club last week-end saw some big springs landed with A. W. Harvey taking the honors with a 44-pounder. Second prize went to N. Zailo with a 43½ pound fish. In the above picture the first prize rowboat is seen along with the biggest fish caught during the day.

U.C.T., Esquimalt Win Junior, Midget Local Ball Laurels

United Commercial Travelers were crowned Victoria Athletic Junior Baseball League champions and Esquimalt Taxi annexed the same honors in the midget division of the Minor Baseball Association in crucial games played last night.

The U.C.T. nine, manager by Harry Youson, was paced to its important victory by the excellent twirling of Murray MacArthur, who turned in a two-hit performance from the mound in the final game of the best-of-three series against Bert Nex's Pitzer and Nex club. Final score read 5 to 1. Each club had won one game in the first two games of the series.

The Travelers will now go on the road to oppose Port Alberni in the up-island town Sunday in a series for the island title.

KEEN MIDGET SERIES

The midget title fight between Esquimalt Taxi and Blue Line was a close, hard series before the taximen checked in with their 11 to 3 verdict last evening to win the silverware. The teams won two games apiece previously and came out of two games with a draw decision.

A five-run rally in the third frame and a homer by Parker in the fourth to net three more runs were the two big innings the taxi row lads enjoyed.

Legion-V.M.D. Play Baseball Tonight

Canadian Legion and V.M.D. teams will resume their best-of-seven series tonight for the city baseball championship at Athletic Park, starting at 8.

Legion hold a one-game margin as a result of taking the opener last Saturday night. Bill Prior is the likely starting hurler for the Legion with Jimmy Dumeah to work for the shipyarders.

Bob Falkenburg In Major Tennis Upset

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—There probably is no more erratic tennis player in the world than Bob Falkenburg, a gangling 20-year-old from the University of Southern California.

The kid brother of Jinx beat Billy Talbert, the Davis Cup star, yesterday in the weirdest match and the greatest upset the national championships are likely to produce. It put Bob in the semifinals.

The scores were 3-6, 6-1, 2-6, 6-2, 7-5. In the three sets the collegiate champion won, his service was a shaft of lightning. In the other two he couldn't have got it inside the court with a permit.

Feller In Bad Slump, Ruins Chances For Pitching Marks

Time is rapidly running out on Bobby Feller's hopes of setting a new major league strikeout record as the Cleveland Indians' great pitcher wallows in the worst slump of his baseball career.

The speedy righthander, who had figured a good bet to become the first pitcher since Dizzy Dean of 12 years ago to notch 30 victories when he registered his 20th win last July 10, has hit an amazing decline since then, losing six of his next eight starts, including his last three.

Feller's sudden reversal of form also has practically ruined his chance of overtaking Rube Waddell's 42-year-old listed record of 343 strikeouts.

Bullet Bob suffered his most humiliating defeat yesterday in Detroit at the hands of the Tigers who clubbed him for eight runs in the fourth inning, the most runs ever scored against Feller in one frame since he joined the majors in 1936.

In all Feller was tagged for nine runs and 11 hits in the 3 1/2 innings he worked with the Tigers beating him for the third straight time, 10 to 0. Fred Hutchinson hurled the shut-out for the Tigers.

The heated National League pennant race continues unabated as the front-running St. Louis Cardinals and runner-up Brooklyn Dodgers both won, the Cards shellacking Chicago Cubs 10 to 1, and the Brooks shading the Braves in Boston, 1 to 0. The Cards retained their two-game bulge over the Dodgers.

Jim Bagby moved Boston Red Sox to within four games of clinching the American League pennant, scattering nine hits to defeat Washington Senators 1 to 0.

Mrs. Jack Todd In Finals At Jasper

JASPER, Alta.—There is an international flavor to the semi-finals of the 17th annual Totem Pole golf tournament as both the top and lower half of the championship draw contain players from the United States and Canada. In the top half, R. H. Cleat, Vancouver, beat Dr. Dobbins, also of Vancouver, and M. B. Marsh, Seattle, defeated H. H. Staff of Toronto. In the lower half, C. E. # Canadian Legion Win Boxla Championship

Coach-manager Art McKim's Canadian Legion gutted artists of the lacrosse box wound up their season of campaigning on the local scene last evening without a defeat when they collected the city crown by handing Tom Carney's Jokers aggregation its third straight defeat in the best-of-five title series.

In winning the series last night by a 13 to 9 count the Legionnaires advanced to the island intermediate finals against Nanaimo's Rummings septette in a best-of-three series for the island silverware.

The Legion men will journey to the Coal City for island series games next Thursday.

Doug Fletcher, president of the Victoria Box Lacrosse Association, at the conclusion of the game, presented the winning club with the symbol of the title, the Little and Taylor Cup. The battle marked the finish of boxla action on the city front for 1946.

Should the Legion warriors take the laurels in the up-island city's arena they win the right to shoot for the B.C. championship in intermediate company against the mainland champions. Also, Victoria Tillicums, coached by Sid Anderson, will seek the B.C. junior laurels. They are the only juniors formed into a club on the island and thus won the route to the provincial final without a contest. Jokers have formed a juvenile club which will go direct into the B.C. playoffs.

SEEK BUILDING FOR NEXT SEASON

It was learned today from secretary Ed Popham that he and the president will again approach the city council at a later date in an effort to secure some indoor-playing space for next season. All efforts to get indoors this year were foiled, but rather than see the sport suffer a relapse in 1946 the officials decided to take the outdoor box. When the deal goes through with the Willows Park the lacrosse people would like to secure one of the buildings there for presentation of the sport.

In the battle last night, which saw both sides put their all into it, Legion took over the lead early, but Jokers fought their way back onto an even footing and later advanced one goal ahead. After the change over, however, McKim's lads put on a five-goal scoring spurge which proved sufficient to carry them through.

Players Sid Watson, Joker, and Vic Sage, Legion, were hurt in the back in the bruising type of struggle. They were treated by secretary Popham, who reported neither badly hurt. Norm Coates of the Jokers topped the scoring parade with four tallies. Red Baker, Freddy Ranson and Duff McCaghey, Legion men, scored a trio each.

Officials paid tribute to referees Sid Anderson, Arnold Ferguson and Al Entwistle for the fine job they had done in arbitrating the games and for the way they had stuck by the league during a difficult season.

Fletcher gave the following picture of mainland playoffs that lead to the island-mainland series for the provincial title:

Hollywood Moves Into Third Spot

The Hollywood Stars, a baseball club which refused to be beaten took over third place today in Coast League baseball.

Oakland's fading Acorns all but put out the fire last night, but Hollywood kept bouncing back and finally shoved across four runs in the Stars' last turn at the plate for a 10 to 8 triumph.

It was the 11th victory for Hollywood in the last 12 games and the fifth straight win over Oakland. In this drive down the stretch the Stars have picked themselves up from the second division to overtake the Los Angeles Angels by .001 in the standings for third place.

Sacramento's Solons, losers of four consecutive games to the San Francisco Seals, came back to the steady hurling of veteran Al Smith for a 4 to 1 decision over the league leaders last night.

The Seattle Rainiers shaded the San Diego Padres 3 to 1 on the five-hit hurling of John Orphan, who helped his own cause by singling-home the tying run in the fifth.

Portland's Beavers rapped out a 5 to 1 victory over the Los Angeles club as Roy Helser, second-ranking game winner of the loop, boosted his record of wins to 19.

The DOCTOR

Says:

"NOSEBLEED MAY REQUIRE DOCTOR'S CARE"

By WILLIAM A. O'BRIEN, M.D.
Nosebleed (epistaxis) usually originates in a small spot on the side of the nose's septum, which separates the nostrils. The blood vessels in this area are arranged in a network near the surface, and thus are more liable to injury.

An occasional nosebleed is not significant, but repeated hemorrhages, or those which are difficult to stop, require the attention of a physician.

Simple nosebleed, which starts without special cause, should be allowed to continue until it stops. A pan can be held under the chin and the blood allowed to drop from the nose to prevent it from trickling down the throat. Ice or cold compresses can be applied to the outside of the nose or to the back of the neck, but as a general rule it is not advisable to put anything in the nose to control the bleeding.

HOME REMEDIES HELP

Various home remedies, such as putting a key on the neck or inserting a piece of brown paper between the upper lip and gum, probably do not have a direct effect on nosebleeds, but they have the virtue of permitting the blood to clot without interference. For severe hemorrhages, a physician should be consulted. He may remove the clot to locate the bleeding point.

Application of a medicine to constrict the blood vessels will control the hemorrhage, especially if vaseline gauze strips are later packed in the nose. If the bleeding is farther back, a plug can be brought forward through the throat.

Persons who suffer with persistent nosebleeds are aided most when the bleeding spot is cauter-

ized with a chemical. As a rule, permanent relief follows, although electric cauterization may be necessary if chemicals fail.

It is not wise for the patient or his friends to put any chemical into the nose to stop bleeding.

MAY FOLLOW INJURY

Nosebleed may follow injuries or operations, both of which also complicate high blood pressure and hardening of the arteries. The bleeding point in high blood pressure may be difficult to locate and control, and, in excessive hemorrhage, a transfusion may be necessary.

In spite of all precautions, bleeding may develop as late as five to seven days after an operation on the nose. When this occurs, the physician who performed the operation should be notified and his advice followed.

Blood which originates in the stomach, lungs, or throat may come through the nose, and in reporting nosebleed to a physician, one should keep this possibility in mind.

LILIENTHAL STUDIED BIRDS TO LEARN ART OF GLIDING

To fly like a bird! That has been the wish of men for ages past. Even with balloons and airplanes, we have not realized the wish so far. We may speed through the air, but we never do it by flapping wings.

Gliding is the nearest we come to the flight of a bird. Some birds soar about with little motion of their wings.

The soaring flight of sea gulls and other birds gave ideas to Otto Lilienthal, who lived in Pomerania, a part of Germany. When only 13 years old, he began his tests by flapping a pair of home-made wings while he ran down a hill. The wings failed to lift from the ground, but this did not cause him to give up his purpose of learning to fly.

As he grew older, Lilienthal kept on trying to solve the problem. He studied the efforts of young storks to make their first flight, and—on windy days—noticed that the young birds were successful when they started to fly against the wind.

In 1891 Lilienthal was ready with a glider which he had built to carry himself. Getting to the end of a springboard, and clutching central parts of his glider, he jumped off and sailed through the air for a short distance.

During the five years which followed, Lilienthal kept on with his trials at gliding. He made 2,000 successful glides, covering more than 800 feet in a single flight. Then came tragedy. While testing a new rudder on a glider, he was overturned by a gust of wind and fell to the ground. His injuries brought death.

The fine work of Lilienthal helped others who lived after him and carried on the task of conquering the air. In the weeks before he died, he was busy making ready to place a carbonic acid gas engine in a glider.

After the coming of motor-driven airplanes, the art of gliding was almost lost sight of until the period following the First World War. Since 1920, however, great progress has been made in the field of gliding. Men have risen thousands of feet into the air in planes without motor or propeller of any sort. They have been able to do this by the use of upward current of air.

No Announcement Yet On By-Election Delay

Mayor J. W. Cornett, of Vancouver, today said after meeting Premier John Hart that he may make an announcement in a few days concerning the possible postponement of the civic by-election to fill the council seat made vacant by the death last week of Alderman H. L. Corey.

Postponement of the by-election to fill the term which normally expires at the end of 1947 until the general civic elections in December, would save the city between $3,000 and $5,000 election costs, it was reported.

Mayor Cornett, accompanied by D. E. McTaggart, K.C., corporation counsel, also saw Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer.

Protest T.C.A. Delay

Protesting the delay in inauguration of Trans-Canada Air Lines' Victoria-Seattle service, set tentatively for Sept. 1, George I. Warren, commissioner for the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, has written W. F. English, T.C.A. vice-president, asking when Victoria may expect the service.

Since receiving a letter from Mr. English dated June 5, Mr. Warren said, nothing further had been heard in regard to the service.

"We would like to point out that it is important that the service start at the earliest possible date," Mr. Warren wrote.

John Pollard was fined $25 and was prohibited from operating his motorcycle for two months when he pleaded guilty before Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court today to a dangerous driving charge. The youth was arrested after giving policemen a chase in which he paced his speeds at rates up to 60 miles an hour. He also was fined $3 for not having a driver's license.

Establish Record For Surrender Of Meat Coupons

Victoria and island residents gave 16,896 meat coupons to the Red Cross coupon collection committee during the month of August to establish a record for monthly totals since the drive got under way last May.

"A wonderful response," said Brig. W. G. Colquhoun, committee chairman, today in telling how during the last three days of August 8,237 coupons were received. In addition 199 tokens were surrendered.

For the first nine days of the month only 1,547 coupons were turned in, while between Aug. 10 and 27, a total of 7,002 were received. In addition 199 tokens were surrendered.

Brig. Colquhoun pointed out that meat coupons which will help swell supplies to Europe had nearly doubled the amount turned in for last record month. That was in June, when the committee received 9,025 coupons.

He said the Red Cross was unable to thank the large number of residents of the island who turned in coupons because no address had accompanied them. Postmarks bore the names of centres as far away as Port Alberni and Nanosee.

The large enrollment at McKenzie Avenue school has continued to come from the new school attendance boundaries which were set last June, J. F. K. English, municipal inspector of schools, said. He estimated it would be the end of next week before there was any degree of stability in the classes, with students being shifted daily in an effort to equalize the attendance between the schools.

Discuss Immediate Transfer Privileges

Ald. H. M. Diggon, chairman of the Greater Victoria Transportation Committee, met W. C. Mainwaring today to discuss the possibility of obtaining immediate transfer privileges between B.C. Electric vehicles and former Blue Line buses.

At the same time many of the details of the proposed unified transportation system and the specifications were discussed, Ald. Diggon said.

He said that it might take some little time before full transfer privileges could be given because he understood that re-routing of some of the lines might be necessary because of the present shortage of buses.

"If the transfer privileges are given now, there is a danger that some of the lines such as the Haultain line might become badly overcrowded with people riding on transfers," Ald. Diggon explained. "However, I have no doubt that a satisfactory scheme will be worked out shortly."

He said that the transportation committee will meet early next week to complete the amendment of the draft specifications, and arrange for the date to call for tenders.

Unions May Establish Education Film Service

Victoria trade unions of both A.F.L. and C.C.L. affiliations may establish their own educational film service according to plans suggested at a meeting of representative unionists with National Film Board officials Thursday night, at which a committee was formed to consider the possibility.

Jack Ralph, National Film Board distribution director, told delegates that while distribution to the unions is to be curtailed, films suitable to their use will still be produced.

C. W. Marshall, secretary of Vancouver Island Joint Labor Conference, informed the meeting he believed it possible to procure the necessary equipment as the gift of an organization sponsored by the trade union movement here.

"If this is accomplished," said L. W. Chatwin, B.C. regional supervisor, "it will place Victoria unions in a unique position throughout all Canada."

The National Film Board conference concludes today with addresses by officials of the departments of forestry, mines, fisheries and trade and industry.

Pearson Host At Dinner For Labor Officials

Labor Minister George S. Pearson was host Thursday night at a dinner in the Hotel Vancouver at which Adam Bell, new chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board, and James Thomson, his successor as Deputy Minister of Labor, and other Labor Department officials were honored.

A number of retiring officers of the department, along with others and representatives of organized labor were present.

Primary Grades Overcrowded; Trying To Hire School Space

All the primary grades in the schools of Greater Victoria are overcrowded it was learned at the school board office today, and officials are making strong attempts to hire halls or other accommodation to take care of the youngsters in several neighborhoods.

Registration in the high schools of the area appears to be "about normal," it was stated, and very few more students are expected to enroll after the end of this week. There are comparatively few high school students in this area who take summer jobs which overlap into the school year.

The biggest problem continues to come from the new school attendance boundaries which were set last June, J. F. K. English, municipal inspector of schools, said. He estimated it would be the end of next week before there was any degree of stability in the classes, with students being shifted daily in an effort to equalize the attendance between the schools.

The Art in Living Group is now working on its autumn architectural display.

Vaccination against the disease, which has already taken a heavy toll among horses of the province, is proceeding.

National Convention Of Newfoundland To Decide On New Rule

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Questions of procedure are expected to be the initial problems before Newfoundland's national convention, which will meet for the first time here next Wednesday to plot the island's governmental destiny.

The 45 members were elected this summer by the 310,000 people of the oldest settlement of the Empire to recommend the form of government to succeed the commission, which has administered Newfoundland since 1934.

Once the procedural questions are solved, the members can get down to their task of discussing whether Newfoundland is in a position to support itself and of making a recommendation on the form of the government to be established.

Ever since the plan to elect a convention was announced in the British House of Commons by Prime Minister Attlee last December, public discussion in Newfoundland has pin-pointed four possible recommendations: Continuation of commission government, return to responsible government, representative government with some members elected and others named by the Crown, and federation with Canada.

But whatever conclusion is reached by the convention in its report to the United Kingdom government, it will be submitted to the people of Newfoundland in a national referendum.

City Wants Huts At Colwood For Housing

Taking over of Colwood army huts, and any other service buildings in the southern Vancouver Island area that may be declared surplus, will be recommended to a special meeting of the City Council next Monday, Ald. R. A. C. Dewar, chairman of the lands, zoning and housing committee, said today.

He, Ald. B. J. Gadsden, J. W. Oosterink, building inspector, and Maj. M. K. Crockett, lands commissioner, inspected the 14 huts at Colwood Thursday and also investigated the possibility of getting several more which are now being used by the army for storage purposes.

Ald. Dewar could give no estimate of how many families could be housed in the Colwood huts, but said that in all probability the Citizens' Rehabilitation Committee would be asked to undertake the conversion and the operation of the housing units.

He said that they would be used primarily for veterans' housing, but provision would have to be made to obtain shelter for other families facing eviction,

WINNIPEG (CP)—A former trend was noticeable in rye futures prices today. Light offerings and modest local and American demand sent prices up 3 cents but later more liberal offerings erased some of the gains.

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains moved within a narrow range in a listless trade today. A minor short-covering movement sent prices in wheat ahead about a cent at one time, but the market soon fell back to around the previous close.

Market Rallying Tendencies Fade

NEW YORK (AP)—Rallying tendencies faded from most sections of today's stock market but selling pressure was relatively light.

An attempt to extend the recovery of Thursday failed to get anywhere at the start and the direction soon was definitely downward for most pivots although scattered issues managed to contest the shift with moderate success.

Canadian issues softened at midday. Canadian Pacific eased 1/4 and Distillers Seagram 1/2. Dome Mines gained 1/4. Others were unchanged.

Recruiting Drive For Fleet Air Arm
Now Under Way Here

A full-scale drive for recruits to the newly-formed Fleet Air Arm is under way on the Pacific coast, Lt.-Cmdr. W. M. Gage, R.C.N. (R.), Victoria recruiting officer, announced today.

There is an acute shortage in the following ratings for the navy's air arm: Air artificers, air radio mechanics and air mechanics. Lt.-Cmdr. Gage said technically qualified and experienced civilians, especially ex-R.C.A.F. senior men of the following ground crew trade would be used to fill this shortage: Air frame and aero-engine mechanics, armorers, electricians, radar and wireless mechanics and radio technicians.

Ex-R.C.A.F. men will be given rank equivalent to that held on discharge, if they meet required educational and technical standards. Recruits may apply at the navy recruiting office at 1238 Government Street.

A soldier returns to his job as a shoe clerk, believing the girl he left behind has not changed, in the comedy "Faithful In My Fashion," at the Dominion Theatre.

She, however, has meanwhile been promoted to head buyer and is engaged to one of the shop's executives. But in order not to spoil the soldier's happiness, the girl lets him believe she is engaged to him, and after a temporary misunderstanding, falls in love with him. Cast includes Tom Drake, Donna Reed, Edward Everett Horton and Spring Byington.

'Amigos' Compete In Atlas Picture

Right now the glamorous Dot is having her hands full with Arturo de Cordova and George Rigaud, two Latin screen lovers who come into her life in "Masquerade in Mexico," Paramount's Mitchell Leisen production due today at the Atlas Theatre. De Cordova is the dashing matador who throws the bull by day and plays the wolf by night. Rigaud is the arch diamond smuggler who has smuggled his way into a legion of palpitating feminine hearts.

YORK THEATRE

Helen Gilbert, who carries the feminine lead in "God's Country," Action Pictures' beautiful, thrilling drama of the Redwood Country in California, now at the York Theatre, is a brilliant cello player. She has appeared in concerts in most of the big cities of this country.

Kellaway toured India and Africa in 1917 in the title role of the play, "Monsieur Beaucaire," currently at the Royal Theatre, stars Bob Hope and Joan Caulfield.

PLAZA THEATRE

Dusty Anderson, the gorgeous ex-Convoyer model, now playing a featured role in Columbia Pictures' new "Boston Blackie" whodunit, "The Phantom Thief," at the Plaza Theatre, may start a new fad in fingernail ornamentation. Dusty sports luminous fingernail paint, easily seen in the dark scenes sequences.

Tom Drake, Donna Reed and Edward Everett Horton are starred in "Faithful in My Fashion," the rip-roaring comedy at the Dominion.

Hollywood Column

By BOB THOMAS

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Movie studios will go great lengths to premiere their pictures; for instance, Columbia came 130 miles.

The occasion was last night's opening of "Gallant Journey" and this jewel of the Pacific was chosen because the picture is about John J. Montgomery, who built the first glider in 1884.

Highlight of the ceremonies was dedication of a new Montgomery Park on Otay Mesa, an obscure highland south of San Diego where Montgomery made his flight. It is so obscure that even the official party couldn't find it at first.

After it was found considerable oratory ensued. This included the architect of the proposed monument, who remarked: "I always mention a few statistics because they are so boring," and proceeded to do so.

Many flowery words were said about the physics professor, who was killed in a plane crash in 1911. But the most appropriate comment was delivered by a fleet of U.S. navy bombers that zoomed over the spot where, says the movie, man first flew.

"Gallant Journey" was worth coming this far to see. Most film biographies couldn't lure me around the block, but this is a pleasant exception.

Notes to you from Hollywood: Jimmy Cagney, who doesn't smoke, will have to puff a cigar and a pipe in "The Stray Lamb."

Note that M-G-M is reissuing "Captains Courageous" and billing Mickey Rooney, who played a bit, over Freddie Bartholomew, the lead.
